

Board to Train Checklist

Please Write your Dog's name on food bag and Leash. You may send Beds or anything else you would like but please understand I cannot be responsible for blankets dog beds or toys being misplaced. As dogs play they pull things out and move them around it is very hard to remember exact who's is what's without a name on it.

Please send the following with your dog.

Metal Crate

2 Towels

Wipe everyone in the household's scent on both towel when you are at your smelliest. Place the towels folded in a plastic bag tied to hold the scent in. (This helps comfort Separation anxiety.)

1 Toy,

Flossing Rope Tug, Ball or Stuffed animal

Two bowls

Metals and Ceramics are easiest to staralize. Plastic Bowls are acceptable as well.

Dog Food

for the duration of the training program (No Dog Food with Corn or By-products Iams, Purina, Pedigree, Alpo, ol Roy) Or any of the foods on this List.

Top 20 Worst Dry Dog Foods

- 1 Leash or Lead Per dog*

6 foot Leash or a 4 foot leash are best. (No Retractable Leashes)

- Flat collar*

You may also send a walking harness along with the flat collar.

- Twos Natural bones per week*

Ie Bully Sticks, Beef Knuckles, Deer antlers. No Rawhides. S